Case No. 5:24-cv-04200-EKL

Judge: Hon. Judge Eumi K Lee

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by the undersigned attorneys for the respective parties, that with regard to material disclosed in the course of the above-captioned lawsuit (“Lawsuit”) which constitute or contain trade secrets or other confidential research, development, or commercial information of the parties (“Confidential Material”), the following procedures shall govern:

1. This Order is meant to encompass all forms of disclosure which may contain Confidential Material, including any document, pleading, motion, exhibit, declaration, affidavit, deposition transcript, inspection and all other tangible items (electronic media, photographs, videocassettes, etc.).
2. The parties may designate any Confidential Material produced or filed in this Lawsuit as confidential and subject to the terms of this Order by marking such materials “Confidential”. If any material has multiple pages, this designation need only be placed on the first page of such

1 material. Any material designated as “Confidential” shall not be disclosed to any person or 2 entity, except to the parties, counsel for the respective parties, and expert witnesses assisting 3 counsel in this Lawsuit, and the Court.

- 4 3. Any material designated as confidential pursuant to paragraphs 2 and 3 above (“Designated 5 Material”) shall be used solely for the purposes of this Lawsuit and for no other purpose.
- 6 4. Prior to disclosure of any Designated Material, each person to whom disclosure is to be made 7 shall execute a written “Confidentiality Agreement” (in the form attached hereto) consenting to 8 be bound by the terms of this Order. The parties, counsel for the respective parties (including 9 legal assistants and other personnel) and the Court are deemed to be bound by this Order and 10 are not required to execute a Confidentiality Agreement.
- 11 5. Only counsel of record in this Lawsuit shall be permitted to disseminate Designated Material.
12 Upon dissemination of any Designated Material, each non-designating counsel of record in this 13 Lawsuit shall maintain a written record as to: (1) the identity of any person given Designated 14 Material, and (2) the identity of the Designated Material so disseminated (such as by “Bates 15 stamp” number). Such record shall be made available to the designating party upon request at 16 the termination of the lawsuit.
- 17 6. If additional persons become parties to this Lawsuit, they shall not have access to any 18 Designated Material until they execute and file with the Court their written agreement to be 19 bound by the terms of this Order.
- 20 7. In the event that any question is asked at a deposition that calls for the disclosure of 21 Confidential Material, the witness shall answer such question (unless otherwise instructed not to 22 do so on grounds of privilege) provided that the only persons in attendance at the deposition are 23 persons who are qualified to receive such information pursuant to this Order. Deposition 24 testimony may be designated as confidential following the testimony having been given provided 25 that: (1) such testimony is identified and designated on the record at the deposition, or (2) non-26 designating counsel is notified of the designation in writing within thirty days after receipt by the 27 designating party of the respective deposition transcript. All deposition transcripts in their 28 entirety shall be treated in the interim as “Confidential – Attorneys Only” pursuant to paragraph

- 3 above. When Designated Material is incorporated in a deposition transcript, the party designating such information confidential shall make arrangements with the court reporter not to disclose any information except in accordance with the terms of this Order.
8. If a deponent refuses to execute a Confidentiality Agreement, disclosure of Confidential Material during the deposition shall not constitute a waiver of confidentiality. Under such circumstances, the witness shall sign the original deposition transcript in the presence of the court reporter and no copy of the exhibits shall be given to the deponent.
9. With respect to any communications to the Court, including pleadings, motions, or other papers, if such documents contain Designated Material, the party seeking to file under seal must comply with Civil Local Rule 79.5. Specifically, the party must file an Administrative Motion to File Under Seal pursuant to Civil L.R. 7-11 at the same time as the submission of the document. Any Designated Material that is filed under seal must be accompanied by a specific statement of the applicable legal standard, reasons for sealing, and why a less restrictive alternative to sealing is not sufficient. The party must also provide evidentiary support from declarations and file a narrowly tailored proposed order identifying the material to be sealed in a table format.
10. The Clerk of the Court shall maintain all documents ordered sealed in accordance with Rule 79-5, in a sealed envelope or other appropriate container, which shall bear the case caption and a statement indicating that the contents are confidential and subject to a Court order. Access to such sealed materials shall be governed by further order of the Court, and parties may move to unseal documents pursuant to the procedures outlined in Rule 79-5(g).
11. If a non-designating party is subpoenaed or ordered to produce Designated Material by another court or administrative agency, such party shall promptly notify the designating party of the pending subpoena or order and shall not produce any Designated Material until the designating party has had reasonable time to object or otherwise take appropriate steps to protect such Designated Material.
12. If a party believes that any Designated Material does not contain confidential information, it may contest the applicability of this Order to such information by notifying the designating party's counsel in writing and identifying the information contested. The parties shall have thirty days

1 after such notice to meet and confer and attempt to resolve the issue. If the dispute is not 2 resolved within such period, the party seeking the protection shall have thirty days in which to 3 make a motion for a protective order with respect to contested information. Information that is 4 subject to a dispute as to whether it is properly designated shall be treated as designated in 5 accordance with the provisions of this Order until the Court issues a ruling.

6 13. Inadvertent failure to designate any material “Confidential” or “Confidential – Attorneys Only”
7 shall not constitute a waiver of an otherwise valid claim of confidentiality pursuant to this Order, 8 so long as a claim of confidentiality is asserted within fifteen days after discovery of the 9 inadvertent failure. At such time, arrangements shall be made by the parties to designate the 10 material “Confidential” or “Confidential – Attorneys Only” in accordance with this Order.

11 14. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of any party to oppose production of any 12 information or object to its admissibility into evidence.

13 15. When any counsel of record in this Lawsuit or any attorney who has executed a Confidentiality 14 Agreement becomes aware of any violation of this Order, or of facts constituting good cause to 15 believe that a violation of this Order may have occurred, such attorney shall report that there 16 may have been a violation of this Order to the Court and all counsel of record.

17 16. Within thirty days after the termination of this Lawsuit (whether by dismissal or final judgment), 18 all Designated Material (including all copies) shall be returned to counsel for the designating 19 party. In addition, counsel returning such material shall execute an affidavit verifying that all 20 Designated Material produced to such counsel and any subsequently made copies are being 21 returned in their entirety pursuant to the terms of this Order. Such a representation fully 22 contemplates that returning counsel has: (1) contacted all persons to whom that counsel 23 disseminated Designated Material, and (2) confirmed that all such material has been returned to 24 disseminating counsel.

25 17. After the termination of this Lawsuit, the provisions of this Order shall continue to be binding 26 and this Court shall retain jurisdiction over the parties and any other person who has access to 27 documents and information produced pursuant to this Order for the sole purpose of 28 enforcement of its provisions.
